Author Index—Volumes 53-54

Alexander, Martin E. Forest and rural fire research in New Zealand resumed. 53-54(1):19

Alexander, Martin E.; Murray E. Maffey. Predicting fire behavior in Canada's aspen forests. 53-54(1):10-13

Bates, Curtis W.; Sherry L. Milburn. Custer National Forest Incident Command System used in urgent nonfire programs. 53-54(1):20-23

Bennett, Billy. Spotlight on safety. 53-54(1):9

Bojalad, Catherine M. Smokey Goes to a Ronald McDonald House. 53-54(Special Issue):27

Brotak, Edward A. Low-level weather conditions preceding major wildfires. 53-54(3):23-26

Brown, James E. Smokey Bear's message—a way of life. 53-54(Special Issue):23

Brown, James K. A case for management of ignitions in wilderness. 53-54(4):3-8

Bungarz, Denny; Richard C. Wharton. Continuing success story of training wildland firefighters. 53-54(2):20-22

Carowan, Glenn A., Jr. Partnerships—making them work in times of limited resources. 53-54(2):23-24

Carroll, Ann. Smokey Bear: On the trail of his video story. 53-54(Special Issue): 11-13

Cavaioli, Maryjane. Behind the scene with a fire information officer. 53-54(2): 12-14

Celarier, Doris N. Elena Rios and her brush with fire. 53-54(2):14

Celarier, Doris N. Fire Management Notes—looking for a few good ideas. 53-54(2):7

Celarier, Doris N. Wildland firefighters, thank Jerry Jeffries—recipient of the GEICO Public Service Award for Fire Safety—for many of your "Lucky Stars". 53-54(2):26-27

Chambers, Valerie. Public involvement in fire management. 53-54(2):8-9

Comeau, Roxanne. Smokey Bear in Canada. 53-54(Special Issue):36

Cunningham, Elsie W. Ignition management at NARTC. 53-54(4):13

Cuoco, Christopher J. Prescribed burns? Share information with fire weather forecasters and involve them in the planning. 53-54(3):10-13

Daines, Gladys D.; Elsie W. Cunningham. Prevention programs: 1944 to 1994 and beyond. 53-54(Special Issue):8-10

Deem, Beverly. Property accountability: What do you know? 53-54(1):18-19

DeGrosky, Michael T. A Montana approach to rating fire risk in wildland developments. 53-54(4):17-19, 26

Dowdy, Gene; Rod Kindlund. National Special Prevention Activities: A fire manager's tool. 53-54(Special Issue): 37-39

Foley, W. Timothy. A new way to analyze prescribed fire costs. 53-54:8

Frey, Tom. Using firefighting skills and systems in the Somalian relief effort. 53-54(3):7-8

Gidlund, Carl. African-American smoke jumpers help celebrate Smokey's 50th. 53-54(4):24-26

Goss, Melanie. Another first—human resource specialist training at NARTC. 53-54(2):15-17

Grant, James E., Jr. Prevention's role in fire management. 53-54(Special Issue):18-19

Hensler, Bob. Handtool sharpening gauge. 53-54(2):10-11

Higginbothan, Rick; Marvin Dablemont. Smokey and the American Cowboy—eastward ho! 53-54(2):18-19

Hilderbrand, David. Do-it-yourself Class A foam eductor. 53-54(3):16-18

Hodes, Enid. "REMEMBER . . .SMOKEY HAS FOR FIFTY YEARS"—Smokey Bear's 50th Anniversary slogan. 53-54(1):13

Holly, Mary Ellen. 1992 silver and bronze Smokey Bear awards announced. 53-54(3):27

Jackson, George. Chain saw safety: The how-to's of inspecting, cleaning, and repairing chain saw chaps. 53-54(3):19

Johnson, Donald. Smokey's impact in Michigan after 50 years. 53-54(Special Issue):22-25

Johnson, Roban. Firefighters go west: The Foothills Fire. 53-54(3):20-22

Johnson, Roy E. Shred, don't burn—an alternative for treating slash on steep terrain. 53-54(4):14-16

Kalish, Elizabeth. Prevention programs revitalized in New Mexico. 53-54(Special Issue):26-27

Koehler, John T. Prescribed burning: A wildfire prevention tool? 53-54(4):9-13

Krushak, Bill. Smokey, fire prevention, and life-safety education 53-54(Special Issue):32-33

Letter restating USDA Forest Service policy on harassment. 53-54(4):27

Magill, Arthur W. People—fire managers must talk with them. 53-54(2):3-7

McGowan, Michael G. Can cooperative efforts help Smokey reduce wildfires? 53-54(Special Issue):28-29

McHugh, Mark. Smokey's correspondence sealed with a paw print and fire prevention message. 53-54(Special Issue): 30-31

Meehan, Jerry. Historic wildfire corridors. 53-54(1): 14-17

Mohr, Francis. Wildfire suppressed—and the wilderness still looks natural! 53-54(3):3-6

Morton, Don T. A long-term success in Virginia. 53-54(Special Issue):25

Nickle, Michael R. A different "view" of Smokey Bear. 53-54(Special Issue):29

O'Rourke, Tere. Smokey: An international ambassador. 53-54(Special Issue):34-35

Orozco, Paul; Ruben Carrillo. Prescribed burning of ponderosa pine red slash on the Gila National Forest. 53-54(1):3-8

O'Toole, John. Smokey Bear: The Advertising Council's oldest customer. 53-54(Special Issue):14-16

Paananen, Donna M. Call for Smokey Bear historical materials. 53-54(1):9

Paananen, Donna M. Missoula Symposium: Fire's natural role in parks and wildlands. 53-54(1):25

Paananen, Donna M. A 50th anniversary gift for Smokey. 53-54(Special Issue):7

Paananen, Donna M. Wooden pride for 10 Years. 53-54(3):13

Pedigo, Stephen F. NWCG Information Resource Management Working Team. 53-54(2):25

Pisano-Pedigo, Lynn. Celebrating 50 years of Smokey Bear. 53-54(Special Issue): 5-7

Rechel, Jennifer L. The weather factor: Highlights from a workshop on fire, weather, and geographic information systems. 53-54(3):14-15

Robertson, F. Dale. Cooperation—a key to Smokey Bear's 50 years of success. 53-54(Special Issue):4

Russell, Kris M. New lease on life for FEPP through GSA. 53-54(3):9

Schlobohm, Paul. Class A foam videos from the National Wildfire Coordinating Group. 53-54(1):24

Schlobohm, Paul. "Class A foams, generating systems, and tactics": A Bureau of Land Management workshop. 53-54(1):25

Sorenson, James C. "A Celebration of the Past and Springboard to the Future." 53-54(Special Issue):13

Terry, Bill. "Fire Protection in Rural America" report available. 53-54(4): 20-21

Toronto, Rhonda. Cooperative education: A personnel pipeline. 53-54(4):22-23

West, Terry L. Golden Smokey award. 53-54(Special Issue):17

Wooden, Ruth A. For 50 years—and more to come. 53-54(Special Issue):15

Subject Index—Volumes 53-54

Aviation

African-American smokejumpers help celebrate Smokey's 50th. Carl Gidlund. 53-54(4):24-26
Wildfire suppressed—and the wilderness still looks natural! Francis Mohr. 53-54(3):3-6

Communication

Behind the scene with a fire information officer. Maryjane Cavaioli. 53-54(2): 12-14
Class A foam videos from the National Wildfire Coordinating Group. Paul Schlobohm. 53-54(1):24
Elena Rios and her brush with fire. Doris N. Celarier. 53-54(2):14
Fire Management Notes—looking for a few good ideas. Doris N. Celarier. 53-54(2):7
"Fire Protection In Rural America" report available. Bill Terry. 53-54(4):20-21
Forest and rural fire research in New Zealand resumed. Martin E. Alexander. 53-54(1):19
Letter restating USDA Forest Service policy on harassment. 53-54(4):27
Missoula Symposium: Fire's natural role in parks and wildlands. Donna M. Paananen. 53-54(1):25
Partnerships—making them work in times of limited resources. Glenn A. Carowan, Jr. 53-54(2):23-24
People—fire managers must talk with them. Arthur W. Magill. 53-54(2):3-7
Property accountability: What do you know? Beverly Deem. 53-54(1):18-19
Public involvement in fire management. Valerie Chambers. 53-54(2):8-9

Cooperation

Call for Smokey Bear historical materials. Donna M. Paananen. 53-54(1):9
Can cooperative efforts help Smokey reduce wildfires? Michael G. McGowan. 53-54(Special Issue):28-29
Celebrating 50 years of Smokey Bear. Lynn Pisano-Pedigo. 53-54(Special Issue):5-7
"A Celebration of the Past and Springboard to the Future." James C. Sorenson. 53-54(Special Issue):13
Continuing success story of training wildland firefighters. Denny Bungarz and Richard C. Wharton. 53-54(2):20-22
Cooperation—a key to Smokey Bear's 50 years of success. Dale F. Robertson. 53-54(Special Issue):4
Cooperative education: A personnel pipeline. Rhonda Toronto. 53-54(4):22-23
A different "view" of Smokey Bear. Michael R. Nickle. 53-54(Special Issue):29
Firefighters go west: The Foothills Fire. Roban Johnson. 53-54(3):20-22
Fire Management Notes—looking for a few good ideas. Doris N. Celarier. 53-54(2):7
"Fire Protection In Rural America" report available. Bill Terry. 53-54(4):20-21
For 50 years—and more to come. Ruth A. Wooden. 53-54(Special Issue):15
Golden Smokey award. Terry L. West. 53-54(Special Issue):17
A long-term success in Virginia. Don T. Morton. 53-54(Special Issue):25
National Special Prevention Activities: A fire manager's tool. Gene Dowdy and Rod Kindlund. 53-54(Special Issue): 37-39
New lease on life for FEPP through GSA. Kris M. Russell. 53-54(3):9
1992 silver and bronze Smokey Bear awards announced. Mary Ellen Holly. 53-54(3):27
NWCG Information Resource Management Working Team. Stephen F. Pedigo. 53-54(2):25
Partnerships—making them work in times of limited resources. Glenn A. Carowan, Jr. 53-54(2):23-24
People—fire managers must talk with them. Arthur W. Magill. 53-54(2):3-7
Prevention programs: 1944 to 1994 and beyond. Gladys D. Daines and Elsie W. Cunningham. 53-54(Special Issue):8-10
Prevention programs revitalized in New Mexico. Elizabeth Kalish. 53-54(Special Issue):26-27
Prevention's role in fire management. James E. Grant, Jr. 53-54(Special Issue):18-19
Public involvement in fire management. Valerie Chambers. 53-54(2):8-9
"REMEMBER . . .SMOKEY HAS FOR FIFTY YEARS"—Smokey Bear's 50th Anniversary slogan. Enid Hodes. 53-54(1):13
Smokey: An international ambassador. Tere O'Rourke. 53-54(Special Issue): 34-35
Smokey and the American Cowboy—eastward ho! Rick Higginbothan and Marvin Dablemont. 53-54(2):18-19
Smokey Bear: The Advertising Council's oldest customer. John O'Toole. 53-54(Special Issue):14-16
Smokey Bear in Canada. Roxanne Comeau. 53-54(Special Issue):36
Smokey Bear: On the trail of his video story. Ann Carroll. 53-54(Special Issue):11-13
Smokey Bear's message—a way of life. James E. Brown. 53-54(Special Issue):23
Smokey, fire prevention, and life-safety education. Bill Krushak. 53-54(Special Issue):32-33
Smokey goes to a Ronald McDonald House. Catherine M. Bojalad. 53-54(Special Issue):27
Smokey's correspondence sealed with a paw print and fire prevention message. Mark McHugh. 53-54(Special Issue): 30-31
Smokey's impact in Michigan after 50 years. Donald Johnson. 53-54(Special Issue):22-25
Using firefighting skills and systems in the Somalian relief effort. Tom Frey. 53-54(3):7-8
The weather factor: Highlights from a workshop on fire, weather, and geographic information systems. Jennifer L. Rechel. 53-54(3):14-15

Equipment

Chain saw safety: The how-to's of inspecting, cleaning, and repairing chain saw chaps. George Jackson. 53-54(3):19
Class A foam videos from the National Wildfire Coordinating Group. Paul Schlobohm. 53-54(1):24
"Class A foams, generating systems, and tactics": A Bureau of Land Management workshop. Paul Schlobohm. 53-54(1):25
Do-it-yourself Class A foam eductor. David Hilderbrand. 53-54(3):16-18
Handtool sharpening gauge. Bob Hensler. 53-54(2):10-11
New lease on life for FEPP through GSA. Kris M. Russell. 53-54(3):9
Partnerships—making them work in times of limited resources. Glenn A. Carowan, Jr. 53-54(2):23-24
Property accountability: What do you know? Beverly Deem. 53-54(1):18-19
Shred, don't burn—an alternative for treating slash on steep terrain. Roy E. Johnson. 53-54(4):14-16
Wildland firefighters, thank Jerry Jeffries—recipient of the GEICO Public Service Award for Fire Safety—for many of your "lucky stars." Doris N. Celarier. 53-54(2):26-27

Fire Behavior

Low-level weather conditions preceding major wildfires. Edward A. Brotak. 53-54(3):23-26
Predicting fire behavior in Canada's aspen forests. Martin E. Alexander and Murray E. Maffey. 53-54(1):10-13

Prescribed burning of ponderosa pine red slash on the Gila National Forest. Paul Orozco and Ruben Carrillo. 53-54(1):3-8
The weather factor: Highlights from a workshop on fire, weather, and geographic information systems. Jennifer L. Rechel. 53-54(3):14-15

Fuels

A case for management ignitions in wilderness. James K. Brown. 53-54(4):3-8
A new way to analyze prescribed fire costs. W. Timothy Foley. 53-53(4):8
Predicting fire behavior in Canada's aspen forests. Martin E. Alexander and Murray E. Maffey. 53-54(1):10-13
Prescribed burning of ponderosa pine red slash on the Gila National Forest. Paul Orozco and Ruben Carrillo. 53-54(1):3-8
Prescribed burning: A wildfire prevention tool? John T. Koehler. 53-54:9-13
Prescribed burns? Share information with fire weather forecasters and involve them in the planning. Christopher J. Cuoco. 53-54(3):10-13
Shred, don't burn—an alternative for treating slash on steep terrain. Roy E. Johnson. 53-54(4):14-16

General Fire Management

Another first—human resource specialist training at NARTC. Melanie Goss. 53-54(2):15-17
Behind the scene with a fire information officer. Maryjane Cavaioli. 53-54(2):12-14
Call for Smokey Bear historical materials. Donna M. Paananen. 53-54(1):9
Can cooperative efforts help Smokey reduce wildfires? Michael G. McGowan. 53-54(Special Issue):28-29
A case for management ignitions in wilderness. James K. Brown. 53-54(4):3-8
Celebrating 50 years of Smokey Bear. Lynn Pisano-Pedigo. 53-54(Special Issue):5-7
"A Celebration of the Past and Springboard to the Future." James C. Sorenson. 53-54(Special Issue):13
Class A foam videos from the National Wildfire Coordinating Group. Paul Schlobohm. 53-54(1):24
"Class A foams, generating systems, and tactics": A Bureau of Land Management workshop. Paul Schlobohm. 53-54(1):25
Cooperation—a key to Smokey Bear's 50 years of success. Dale F. Robertson. 53-54(Special Issue):4
Custer National Forest Incident Command System used in urgent nonfire programs. Curtis W. Bates and Sherry L. Milburn. 53-54(1):20-23
A different "view" of Smokey Bear. Michael R. Nickle. 53-54(Special Issue):29
Do-it-yourself Class A foam eductor. David Hilderbrand. 53-54(3):16-18
Elena Rios and her brush with fire. Doris N. Celarier. 53-54(2):14
A 50th anniversary gift for Smokey. Donna M. Paananen. 53-54(Special Issue):7
Fire Management Notes—looking for a few good ideas. Doris N. Celarier. 53-54(2):7
"Fire Protection In Rural America" report available. Bill Terry. 53-54(4):20-21
Forest and rural fire research in New Zealand resumed. Martin E. Alexander. 53-54(1):19
For 50 years—and more to come. Ruth A. Wooden. 53-54(Special Issue):15
Golden Smokey award. Terry L. West. 53-54(Special Issue):17
Handtool sharpening gauge. Bob Hensler. 53-54(2):10-11
Historic wildfire corridors. Jerry Meehan. 53-54(1): 14-17
Letter restating USDA Forest Service policy on harassment. 53-54(4):27
A long-term success in Virginia. Don T. Morton. 53-54(Special Issue):25
Low-level weather conditions preceding major wildfires. Edward A. Brotak. 53-54(3):23-26
Missoula Symposium: Fire's natural role in parks and wildlands. Donna M. Paananen. 53-54(1):25
National Special Prevention Activities: A fire manager's tool. Gene Dowdy and Rod Kindlund. 53-54(Special Issue):37-39
A new way to analyze prescribed fire costs. W. Timothy Foley. 53/53(4):8
1992 silver and bronze Smokey Bear awards announced. Mary Ellen Holly. 53-54(3):27
People—fire managers must talk with them. Arthur W. Magill. 53-54(2):3-7
Predicting fire behavior in Canada's aspen forests. Martin E. Alexander and Murray E. Maffey. 53-54(1):10-13
Prescribed burning of ponderosa pine red slash on the Gila National Forest. Paul Orozco and Ruben Carrillo. 53-54(1):3-8
Prevention programs: 1944 to 1994 and beyond. Gladys D. Daines and Elsie W. Cunningham. 53-54(Special Issue):8-10
Prevention programs revitalized in New Mexico. Elizabeth Kalish. 53-54(Special Issue):26-27
Prevention's role in fire management. James E. Grant, Jr. 53-54(Special Issue):18-19
Property accountability: What do you know? Beverly Deem. 53-54(1):18-19
Public involvement in fire management. Valerie Chambers. 53-54(2):8-9
"REMEMBER . . .SMOKEY HAS FOR FIFTY YEARS"—Smokey Bear's 50th Anniversary slogan. Enid Hodes. 53-54(1):13
Smokey: An international ambassador. Tere O'Rourke. 53-54(Special Issue):34-35
Smokey Bear: The Advertising Council's oldest customer. John O'Toole. 53-54(Special Issue):14-16
Smokey Bear in Canada. Roxanne Comeau. 53-54(Special Issue):36
Smokey Bear: On the trail of his video story. Ann Carroll. 53-54(Special Issue):11-13
Smokey Bear's message—a way of life. James E. Brown. 53-54(Special Issue):23
Smokey, fire prevention, and life-safety education. Bill Krushak. 53-54(Special Issue):32-33
Smokey goes to a Ronald McDonald House. Catherine M. Bojalad. 53-54(Special Issue):27
Smokey's correspondence sealed with a paw print and fire prevention message. Mark McHugh. 53-54(Special Issue):30-31
Smokey's impact in Michigan after 50 years. Donald Johnson. 53-54(Special Issue):22-25
Spotlight on safety. Billy Bennett. 53-54(1):9
Wildfire suppressed—and the wilderness still looks natural! Francis Mohr. 53-54(3):3-6
Wooden pride for 10 years. Donna M. Paananen. 53-54(3):13

Personnel

African-American smokejumpers help celebrate Smokey's 50th. Carl Gidlund. 53-54(4):24-26
Another first—human resource specialist training at NARTC. Melanie Goss. 53-54(2):15-17
Behind the scene with a fire information officer. Maryjane Cavaioli. 53-54(2):12-14
Chain saw safety: The how-to's of inspecting, cleaning, and repairing chain saw chaps. George Jackson. 53-54(3):19
Continuing success story of training wildland firefighters. Denny Bungarz and Richard C. Wharton. 53-54(2):20-22
Cooperative education: A personnel pipeline. Rhonda Toronto. 53-54(4):22-23
Elena Rios and her brush with fire. Doris N. Celarier. 53-54(2):14
A 50th anniversary gift for Smokey. Donna M. Paananen. 53-54(Special Issue):7
Firefighters go west: The Foothills Fire. Roban Johnson. 53-54(3):20-22
Forest and rural fire research in New Zealand resumed. Martin E. Alexander. 53-54(1):19
Letter restating USDA Forest Service policy on harassment. 53-54(4):27
1992 silver and bronze Smokey Bear awards announced. Mary Ellen Holly. 53-54(3):27
Property accountability: What do you know? Beverly Deem. 53-54(1):18-19
Smokey and the American Cowboy—eastward ho! Rick Higginbothan and Marvin Dablemont. 53-54(2):18-19
Spotlight on safety. Billy Bennett. 53-54(1):9
Using firefighting skills and systems in the Somalian relief effort. Tom Frey. 53-54(3):7-8
Wooden pride for 10 years. Donna M. Paananen. 53-54(3):13

Continued on page 26

Planning

Custer National Forest Incident Command System used in urgent nonfire programs. Curtis W. Bates and Sherry L. Milburn. 53-54(1):20-23
Historic wildfire corridors. Jerry Meehan. 53-54(1): 14-17
A Montana approach to rating fire risk in wildland developments. Michael T. DeGrosky. 53-54(4):17-19, 26
A new way to analyze prescribed fire costs. W. Timothy Foley. 53-53(4):8
NWCG Information Resource Management Working Team. Stephen F. Pedigo. 53-54(2):25
People—fire managers must talk with them. Arthur W. Magill. 53-54(2):3-7
Prescribed burning: A wildfire prevention tool? John T. Koehler. 53-54:9-13
Prescribed burns? Share information with fire weather forecasters and involve them in the planning. Christopher J. Cuoco. 53-54(3):10-13
Public involvement in fire management. Valerie Chambers. 53-54(2):8-9
Spotlight on safety. Billy Bennett. 53-54(1):9

Presuppression

A case for management ignitions in wilderness. James K. Brown. 53-54(4):3-8

Prevention

African-American smokejumpers help celebrate Smokey's 50th. Carl Gidlund. 53-54(4):24-26
Call for Smokey Bear historical materials. Donna M. Paananen. 53-54(1):9
Can cooperative efforts help Smokey reduce wildfires? Michael G. McGowan. 53-54(Special Issue):28-29
Celebrating 50 years of Smokey Bear. Lynn Pisano-Pedigo. 53-54(Special Issue):5-7
"A Celebration of the Past and Springboard to the Future." James C. Sorenson. 53-54(Special Issue):13
Cooperation—a key to Smokey Bear's 50 years of success. Dale F. Robertson. 53-54(Special Issue):4
A different "view" of Smokey Bear. Michael R. Nickle. 53-54(Special Issue):29
A 50th anniversary gift for Smokey. Donna M. Paananen. 53-54(Special Issue):7
For 50 years—and more to come. Ruth A. Wooden. 53-54(Special Issue):15
Golden Smokey award. Terry L. West. 53-54(Special Issue):17
Historic wildfire corridors. Jerry Meehan. 53-54(1): 14-17
Ignition management at NARTC. Elsie W. Cunningham. 53-54(4):13
A long-term success in Virginia. Don T. Morton. 53-54(Special Issue):25
A Montana approach to rating fire risk in wildland developments. Michael T. DeGrosky. 53-54(4):17-19, 26
National Special Prevention Activities: a fire manager's tool. Gene Dowdy and Rod Kindlund. 53-54(Special Issue): 37-39
Prevention programs: 1944 to 1994 and beyond. Gladys D. Daines and Elsie W. Cunningham. 53-54(Special Issue):8-10
Prevention programs revitalized in New Mexico. Elizabeth Kalish. 53-54(Special Issue):26-27
Prevention's role in fire management. James E. Grant, Jr. 53-54(Special Issue):18-19
"REMEMBER . . .SMOKEY HAS FOR FIFTY YEARS"—Smokey Bear's 50th Anniversary slogan. Enid Hodes. 53-54(1):13
Smokey: An international ambassador. Tere O'Rourke. 53-54(Special Issue): 34-35
Smokey and the American Cowboy—eastward ho! Rick Higginbothan and Marvin Dablemont. 53-54(2):18-19
Smokey Bear: The Advertising Council's oldest customer. John O'Toole. 53-54(Special Issue):14-16
Smokey Bear in Canada. Roxanne Comeau. 53-54(Special Issue):36
Smokey Bear: On the trail of his video story. Ann Carroll. 53-54(Special Issue):11-13
Smokey Bear's message—a way of life. James E. Brown. 53-54(Special Issue):23
Smokey, fire prevention, and life-safety education. Bill Krushak. 53-54(Special Issue):32-33
Smokey goes to a Ronald McDonald House. Catherine M. Bojalad. 53-54(Special Issue):27
Smokey's correspondence sealed with a paw print and fire prevention message. Mark McHugh. 53-54(Special Issue): 30-31
Smokey's impact in Michigan after 50 years. Donald Johnson. 53-54(Special Issue):22-25
Wooden pride for 10 years. Donna M. Paananen. 53-54(3):13

Safety

Chain saw safety: The how-to's of inspecting, cleaning, and repairing chain saw chaps. George Jackson. 53-54(3):19
Wildland firefighters, thank Jerry Jeffries—recipient of the GEICO Public Service Award for Fire Safety—for many of your "lucky stars". Doris N. Celarier. 53-54(2):26-27

Suppression

Firefighters go west: The Foothills Fire. Roban Johnson. 53-54(3):20-22
Historic wildfire corridors. Jerry Meehan. 53-54(1): 14-17
Wildfire suppressed—and the wilderness still looks natural! Francis Mohr. 53-54(3):3-6

Systems

Custer National Forest Incident Command System used in urgent nonfire programs. Curtis W. Bates and Sherry L. Milburn. 53-54(1):20-23
A Montana approach to rating fire risk in wildland developments. Michael T. DeGrosky. 53-54(4):17-19, 26
NWCG Information Resource Management Working Team. Stephen F. Pedigo. 53-54(2):25
Prescribed burning: A wildfire prevention tool? John T. Koehler. 53-54:9-13
Prescribed burns? Share information with fire weather forecasters and involve them in the planning. Christopher J. Cuoco. 53-54(3):10-13
Using firefighting skills and systems in the Somalian relief effort. Tom Frey. 53-54(3):7-8
The weather factor: Highlights from a workshop on fire, weather, and geographic information systems. Jennifer L. Rechel. 53-54(3):14-15

Training

Another first—human resource specialist training at NARTC. Melanie Goss. 53-54(2):15-17
Class A foam videos from the National Wildfire Coordinating Group. Paul Schlobohm. 53-54(1):24
"Class A foams, generating systems, and tactics": A Bureau of Land Management workshop. Paul Schlobohm. 53-54(1):25
Continuing success story of training wildland firefighters. Denny Bungarz and Richard C. Wharton. 53-54(2):20-22
Cooperative education: A personnel pipeline. Rhonda Toronto. 53-54(4):22-23
Ignition management at NARTC. Elsie W. Cunningham. 53-54(4):13
Missoula Symposium: Fire's natural role in parks and wildlands. Donna M. Paananen. 53-54(1):25
Wildland firefighters, thank Jerry Jeffries—recipient of the GEICO Public Service Award for Fire Safety—for many of your "lucky stars". Doris N. Celarier. 53-54(2):26-27